

FACTS

Aerial Park Adventure

Day: Wednesday afternoon, August 3rd
Time: First group will ascend to the treetops at 2 p.m.
Location: Meet at the Adventure Collective's store in the Salishan Marketplace
Lunch: Your Aerial Park registration fee includes lunch served by the Squatchsami Food Truck in the Marketplace (just show your wristband)

Soar high up in the trees for a thrilling adventure in Salishan's on-site Aerial Park. Trained aerial coaches will assist in launching you into your self-guided experience. Conquer the course's 15 platforms and 20 elements through a series of obstacles – some easy, others challenging – during your adventure. The park is set within the magnificent forest on the resort's grounds, giving visitors stunning views of Siletz Bay and the Pacific Ocean.

- The 2 ½ hour experience includes orientation, gear-up, nature hike to the park, ground school and 45-60 minutes in the trees.
- Maximum weight limit is 275 lbs. Minimum age is 8 (no exceptions). Children from 8-12 require adult supervision (one for each kid).
- Each participant must complete an online waiver form (the AESC will provide a link)
- Closed-toed shoes are required with a back (i.e., no "cros" or sandals)
- Each climber will be provided gloves, as well as other safety gear
- Wear appropriate clothing such as jeans/shorts, sweatshirt, t-shirt...
- We will have some tables and games for those waiting to ascend into the trees or for "gawkers" who just want to watch the fun unfold above them
- The park operates rain or shine!

